

Cascade Ridge Trail Guide

The Cascade Ridge Trail is a 12.4 km loop with 850 meters of elevation gain. The trailhead sits at Pine Hollow parking lot, open from dawn to dusk.

Difficulty: Moderate to hard. Allow five to six hours round trip.

Water: Two natural springs at km 3 and km 7; treat before drinking.

Best season: Late June through September, before the first snow.

Wildlife: Black bears are active in spring. Carry your food in a bear canister and make noise on blind corners.
